RUDOLF Chemicals Indonesia and RUDOLF Polymers Indonesia Achieve Halal Certification for 600 Products.

Cikarang, Indonesia – RUDOLF Chemicals Indonesia and RUDOLF Polymers Indonesia have successfully achieved Halal certification for a total of 600 products, marking a significant milestone in the company's ongoing commitment to meeting global market requirements and supporting customer needs across diverse regions.

This achievement reinforces RUDOLF's strategic focus on providing compliant, high quality solutions for customers serving Halal sensitive markets, particularly in the Middle East and other regions where Halal compliance is a key requirement. With a broad portfolio now certified, customers can confidently integrate RUDOLF products into their supply chains while meeting local regulatory, cultural, and brand requirements.

Supporting Brands and Market Access

The expanded Halal-certified portfolio enables RUDOLF's customers and brand partners to strengthen market entry and expansion into Middle Eastern and Muslim-majority markets. It also allows them to align with increasing consumer and regulatory demand for Halal-compliant products, while simplifying compliance processes without compromising high performance and product quality.

By offering Halal certified chemical solutions across textile, polymer, and specialty applications, RUDOLF actively supports brands in building trust, transparency, and credibility with their end markets.

Commitment to Customers and Responsible Growth

Halal certification reflects more than regulatory compliance, it is a clear expression of RUDOLF's commitment to customer partnership, market responsibility, and sustainable growth. The certification process was carried out in line with internationally recognised Halal standards, ensuring product integrity throughout sourcing, production, and handling.

"We are proud to announce that RUDOLF Group Indonesia has officially received Halal certification from a recognize Halal Institution in Indonesia. This milestone reinforces our commitment to providing textile chemicals and polymers that meet the highest standard of quality, safety, and integrity for the Muslim majority market and beyond." stated Kurniawan Hendrianto, Vice Director of Technical at RUDOLF Indonesia.

At a global level, this initiative underscores the company's continued investment in long-term customer success. "Today's announcement reflects a deliberate investment in what our customers need next. We are strengthening our capabilities and scaling capacity so our partners can grow with certainty, supported by globally consistent standards." said Marcos Furrer, CEO of RUDOLF.

Meeting Evolving Market Demands

As global demand for Halal compliant products continues to grow across textiles, consumer goods, and technical applications, RUDOLF remains committed to proactively adapting its portfolio. The company continues to invest in certifications, technical support, and regional capabilities to ensure its customers are equipped to succeed in both existing and emerging markets.
